Course Description

This is an advanced level course for students who have prior experience in drawing and illustration. Enrollment is by consent of the instructor. The course includes lectures and studio time for individual projects. Students are required to attend both the theoretical part and the studio laboratory and to complete individual projects. This course focuses on the picture book, in which words and illustration are intrinsically linked. Students study classic and contemporary picture books. With guidance from the instructor, students develop their own works with attention to narrative structure, selection of scenes to be illustrated, technique, storyboard, etc. Book layout is completed through specific software. Final assessment involves a presentation of the projects developed during the course.
