Course Description

This is an advanced level painting course in the Laurea Magistrale degree program for students who have experience in painting techniques. Enrolment is by permission of the instructor. The course includes lectures and a minimum of 15 hours/week of studio time for individual projects. The course continues advanced practice of all aspects of painting from pre- to post-production and of the technical processes involved. Students are expected to continue to develop technique, further define their personal painting style, and critique their own work. Assessment takes place throughout the semester with frequent critiques with the instructor, followed by a final oral interview including a presentation and discussion of the artworks completed during the course.
