Course Description

The course enables students to practice oral proficiency through discussions, argumentations, short presentations and talks. Written proficiency is practiced through essay writing, reviews, practical texts and compilations of facts from different sources of information. Different texts are analyzed with regard to genre and language style. Reading comprehension is trained through scanning and study of both non-fiction and fiction texts. Newspaper articles, radio and TV programs are used in the proficiency training. The pronunciation and grammar tuition consists of revision of the typical traits of Swedish phonetics and grammar.
