Course Description

UCEAP Keio students are not eligible to enroll as this is a year-long course starting in the spring semester. This course is designed for students who are learning Russian for the first time. Over the course of one year, the course teaches the grammar necessary to read standard Russian texts.

This semester focuses on mastering the fundamentals of pronunciation and grammar, emphasizing pronunciation, stress, and intonation. In addition, the class acquires essential vocabulary, grammatical structures, and basic sentence patterns that form the foundation for reading comprehension and written expression. The goal of the course is to develop one's ability to read simple Russian texts independently using a dictionary and grammar reference.
