Course Description

Arabic 2 is an integrated course that helps students gain higher basic proficiency in the four skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing), grammar, vocabulary for personal interaction and communication in authentic situations. Themes covered are pertinent to everyday social settings/encounters, such as family, party, food, time and price, holiday and alike. Grammar rules and concepts cover topics such as present tense conjugation, imperative and imperative moods, singular, dual and plural, negation, nominal and verbal sentences, prepositions, etc. This course has a prerequisite of Arabic 1 or students must take a placement test to test into Arabic 2.
