Course Description

This course is a continuation of Málnotkun (Language Use) II. Students who took Málnotkun I and II can take Málnotkun III to continue their study. The main focus in Japanese Language III is going over the beginners level grammar not covered in previous courses, as well as increasing the students' vocabulary. There are regular quizzes, and students are expected to do considerable amount of preparation and homework. Regular attendance is crucial to follow the course.
