Course Description

This course is part of the Laurea Magistrale degree program and is intended for advanced level students. Enrollment is by permission of the instructor. The course provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the comparative dimension of the European legal space through primary institutions and principles, with a particular emphasis on solidarity. The course will lead the students to acquire and improve the following skills: techniques for reading and understanding constitutional norms, legislation and case law from different legal systems, as well as critical skills for the comparative examination of European constitutionalism; ability to find and understand legal sources of the European legal space; skills to elaborate innovative norms and policies in both the public and the private sector.

The course content is divided as follows:

- Comparative Methodology
- Practical and Theoretical Targets of Legal Comparison
- European Legal Families and Political/Territorial Systems
- European Constitutionalism and Comparative Understandings of the Principle of Solidarity
- EU and Domestic Legal Framework of Solidarity
- Solidarity in Inter-territorial relations
- Financial, Migration, and Environmental Norms and Policies on Solidarity
- Constitutional Adjudication and Interaction with European Courts
