Course Description

This course is built around approximately 20 selected works by renowned French authors, aiming to systematically develop students' literary analysis skills. It deepens their nuanced understanding of French at the levels of word, sentence, and discourse, while fostering a comprehensive awareness of major literary movements and styles in French literature. Weekly supplementary materials include social science texts and news listening exercises, designed to enhance the ability to parse complex structures and expand the use of advanced vocabulary. The course also incorporates targeted preparation aligned with the requirements of the Test for French Majors-Band 8 (TFM8), strengthening both comprehensive skills and exam readiness.
