Course Description

This C1 level French course develops argumentative presentation and oral communication skills. Students practice writing an argumentative essay using the French methodology (identify an issue, create an outline, introduction, conclusion); perfect language skills: expand vocabulary, use argumentative tools, engage in conversation and involve the listener; improve comprehension of authentic written and audio materials; and discover and present a characteristic of French culture. The course reviews and deepens knowledge of grammar, syntax, and vocabulary (examples: direct questions in formal language; indirect questions; complex sentence syntax; conditional and subjunctive conjugations). It develops mastery of argumentative tools: logical links (introduction of elements and articulation: examples, addition, nuances, opinion); highlighting ideas; impersonal turns of phrase; expression of opposition and concession, hypothesis, condition.
