Course Description

This course is designed for students who have already acquired the capacity to function with some independence in Italian. This course enables students to understand key information and to communicate effectively in Italian, sometimes spontaneously, in less routine situations, at a standard level; provides opportunities, across a variety of topics, for practice of understanding and communication in Italian using the four language skills of listening, reading, speaking, and writing, at a standard level; consolidates and develops the range of key elements of Italian structures, vocabulary, syntax, and pronunciation, to allow continued progression in Italian; and presents the background culture and society of Italian through a variety of contextualized activities and materials, in a range of media.
