Course Description

This course provides a study of Spanish artistic movements from the 16th century to today. It analyzes the stylistic characteristic of the Renaissance, Baroque, Romanticism, Cubism, and Surrealism. Particular attention is given to Spanish art within the European context, as well as aspects of patronage or the art market. The course includes examination of fundamental artists such as El Greco, Velázquez, Goya, Picasso, or Dalí, and their works in relation with artists from other areas of Europe.
