Course Description

This course provides English-speaking students with various kinds of knowledge about the Korean language including structural characteristics of modern Korean, the information on the writing system (i.e. Hangeul), socio-cultural effects on the Korean language, etc. The course is offered from a linguistic point of view, but does not require a specific linguistic knowledge. It is not a language training course, but will help gain a deeper understanding of Korean, which is very useful in acquiring a better command of Korean.
