Course Description

This course targets first-year students who have completed a one-semester introductory Chinese program. It systematically develops proficiency in vocabulary, Chinese characters, grammar, and culture through everyday communicative contexts, with a special focus on campus life. Topics cover family, weekend activities, campus routines, social interactions, shopping, visiting, studies, and work. By the end of the course, students will be able to recognize, use, and write approximately 250 Chinese words, understand about 30 character radicals, and master 15 key grammatical points.
