Course Description

This course teaches the fundamentals of archery form (stance, set, setup, drawing, full draw, aiming, release, and follow-through), learning the movements, mental control, and sighting techniques necessary to hit the center of the target. Initially, the class will shoot arrows at close range, focusing on proper form, while gradually increasing the distance as the class becomes more comfortable. By the end of the course, the class will engage in competitive match-style shooting at a distance of approximately 15 meters.
