Course Description

This course is tailored to students' Japanese language proficiency levels and is intended for students who have been assessed as being at levels VI or VII in the Japanese Language and Culture Education Center's placement test. It is conducted in a lecture format and is designed for students who wish to work in Japan in the future.

The course provides an opportunity to learn about and discuss the customs and important aspects of Japanese business communication, including acquiring the Japanese language skills necessary for business settings and job hunting (honorifics, interjections, useful business expressions, etc.), Japanese business etiquette, an understanding of the latest business trends in Japan, and basic professional skills (problem-solving ability, teamwork).

Language topics covered will differ between the spring and fall semesters.
