Course Description

The course enables students with no prior knowledge of Afrikaans to develop a basic competency in the language, which is required for basic daily interactions. Afrikaans grammar is taught within context, appropriate vocabulary is systematically expanded, and a variety of relevant written and oral activities are provided to facilitate comprehension. DP requirements: At least 75% attendance at lectures; completion of all assignments and tests. Assessment: One two-hour examination in June or October/November counts for 40% of the final mark; an oral examination counts for 20%; the semester coursework counts for the remaining 40%.
