Course Description

This course focuses on the acquisition and activation of new vocabulary. It covers a series of frequent conversational themes and situations from daily life, including personal traits, art and culture, and current events. Students participate actively in class discussions, dialogues, and debates, as well as prepare oral presentations and write short compositions. The course develops students' acquisition of phonetic accuracy through oral presentations, practical training, and individualized work. Students cover a survey of important literary works as part of this course with regular quizzes and one final exam.
